CORONER INVESTIGATES.

Drowning of Southern Young Man and Girl at Chataqua Lake.

Jamestown, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Coroner Diston began an investigation of the accident on Chataqua lake last Saturday night which resulted in the death by drowning of Miss Elsie Green, of Savannah, Ga., and Porter B. Parish, of Memphis, Tenn.

It was shown that just before the accident the pilot of the Chataqua had left the wheel to go to the stern of the boat to collect fares. He had just returned to the wheel when the screams of the girl directly in front attracted the attention of the steamer's crew and passengers.

The girl sprang from the boat as the steamer bore down toward it and the young man jumped overboard in an effort to save her. Apparently, both were drawn under the steamer and drowned.

JEWELS HIDDEN IN SLIPPER.

Lost Cinderella Slipper that is Worth at Least $1,500.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Somewhere in Chicago there is a Cinderella slipper which is worth at least $1,500. The Cinderella is the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. I. Silverman, and her lost slipper holds diamonds valued at $1,500, the property of her mother.

Friday the child's slippers were thrown into the garbage can, and on Monday, when Mrs. Silverman wanted her two diamond rings and brooch, it was remembered the valuables had been hidden in one of the slippers. The police have commenced an investigation as to the whereabouts of the slipper.

Higher Insurance Rates.

New Orleans, Aug. 7.—Following notice of a raise of about 25 per cent in fire insurance rates in the business district of New Orleans, Mayor Behrman and Fire Chief O'Connor united in declaring the city's protection adequate. The raise was based on statements by the fire prevention bureau that the fire department is inadequate, the water supply insufficient and the building laws defective.

Ty Cobb Weds Augusta Girl.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 7.—Ty Cobb, batting batsman for the American League and fielder for the Detroit ball team, was married here at noon Thursday to Miss Charlie Lombard, a well known young lady of this city. At the Oaks, the Lombard country home, extreme simplicity marked the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Thomas Walker.

YEAR BOOK ISSUED.

Progress Made in Food and Drug Inspection.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The progress made in food and drug inspection and legislation during 1902 is explained in detail in the year book of the department of agriculture which has just been issued. The experimental work of the bureau of chemistry, the enforcement of the federal food and drugs act, the numerous investigations that have been carried on and the part played by the various states in the enactment of laws regulating the manufacture and sale of foods are some of the subjects treated. During the last year 176 samples of food and drugs were sent to these laboratories, resulting in 323 hearings and the transmittal of twelve criminal cases to the department of justice for prosecution. One of the greatest difficulties encountered was to secure a sufficient number of inspectors or chemists possessing the requisite training and experience in foods and drugs.

Methods of manufacture were studied and whenever possible assistance was given manufacturers in improving their methods. By means of sterilization it was found that various fruit and vegetable products can be preserved with the use of chemical preservatives. The study of the influence of cold storage upon the value of food gained much headway. Among the more important studies of the methods of manufacture and preservation of foods and drugs were the bleached flour investigation, the lemon oil investigation, the whisky investigation, and the investigation of non-fermented beverages alleged to contain cocaine or other objectionable drugs.

PLAN OF MRS. RUSSELL SAGE.

May Present United States with Site for Military Preparatory School.

New York, Aug. 7.—It is learned from a New York friend of Mrs. Russell Sage, that she is thinking seriously of purchasing Constitutional Island in the Upper Hudson opposite West Point, and presenting it to the United States government as a site on which to erect the world's greatest military preparatory school.

Mrs. Sage will, it is said, send a representative to West Point to look into the matter. She would like to give to West Point a preparatory school, it is said, where boys, particularly those from remote places, where the public schools are not the best, can receive the preparatory education necessary to pass the rigid examination required of all candidates for cadetships at the United States Military academy.

President Roosevelt is said to be in favor of the plan. The island can be had for a sum between $150,000 and $200,000.

Suit Against Thaw.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Harry Thaw was taken from his quarters in the Dutchess county jail Wednesday to Fishkill to appear before a referee as defendant in a suit brought against him by Dr. John P. Wilson for $500 for services as an expert witness in the recent habeas corpus proceedings. Thaw disputed the amount of the bill but is willing to pay about $200. On his way to Fishkill Thaw was accompanied by an under sheriff, a deputy sheriff and his counsel.

Texas Quarantines Against Mexico.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 7.—The state of Texas, through the health department, established a rigid yellow fever quarantine against Mexico as an outcome of a recent tour of the republic by Dr. J. F. Hayes, of the state health department. Dr. Hayes reported yellow fever to exist at Vera Cruz and other points and declared the disease had proven fatal in a number of instances.

Death at Parker Speaking.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 7.—C. T. Pratt, a physician of this city, expired Wednesday night in the Temple auditorium surrounded by nearly 2,000 persons who had gathered for the purpose of hearing Alton B. Parker, of New York, open the national democratic campaign in California. Dr. Pratt was with friends and the speaking had not begun when he was seen to lurch forward and in a few minutes was dead.

$300,000 LOSS BY FIRE

Midway, Ky., Narrowly Escapes Total Destruction.

FIERY STREAM OF WHISKEY

Five Warehouses of the Greenbaum Distilling Company Burned with 47,000 Barrels of Whisky—Creek Turned into Stream of Fire.

Midway, Ky., Aug. 7.—This town, halfway between Lexington and Frankfort, was the scene of a conflagration that for a time threatened the town with destruction Wednesday night.

The fire, which is believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed five warehouses of the S. J. Greenbaum Distilling company, entailing a loss estimated at $300,000. The amount of insurance is not known, but it is believed the loss is amply covered. The distilling company is a Louisville, Ky., concern, of which Morris S. Greenbaum is the head.

The flames caused by the burning of the 47,000 barrels of whisky which turned a creek nearby into a fiery stream, could be seen for ten miles. The flames as they coursed down the surface of the creek destroyed the Southern railroad trestle which spans it, along with a half dozen negro cabins and outbuildings.

The fire started at about 10 o'clock in Warehouse "A," and spread rapidly to the others, and it was feared for a time that the whole of the town would be destroyed. The wind, however, shifted, leaving the town in no immediate danger of destruction.

While the property loss amounts to $300,000, the constructive loss to the government by the destruction of two million, three hundred thousand gallons of whisky in bond is about $2,500,000. The distillery had been closed several months. The cause of the fire will be investigated.

Dr. Hill deals in his lecture with "the ethical function of the historian."

The subjects discussed comprise all periods and departments of ancient and modern historical research and the lecturers include a large number of prominent historians and professors.

The United States is represented by Ambassador Hill, G. Reiser, of Cambridge; E. Capps, of Princeton; N. Haskins, of Cambridge; M. Jastrow, of Philadelphia; A. C. McGiffert, of New York, and Kuno Francke, of Cambridge.

STRANGE SLEEP OF GIRL.

Medical Profession of Rome Have Puzzling Case on Hand.

Rome, Ga., Aug. 7.—The medical profession are trying to solve a deep mystery and to arouse a beautiful young lady from a several days' sleep.

On Tuesday last Miss Pearl Hendrix, went to sleep at her home at Lindale and only once since that time has she opened her eyes. This was on last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. At this hour she awoke, but not for long. All day Sunday she slept hard and fast.

Every doctor in Lindale has tried to arouse the girl from her slumbers, but it is said their efforts so far have been fruitless. Everything possible has been done to revive her, but it seems that nothing known to the profession will relieve the girl of her unusual malady.

Miss Hendrix has been known on another occasion to fall into a sleep, from which she did not arouse until nine days had passed. It is feared her present sleep will be of longer duration than her last one.

GEN. EVANS ASKS NO FAVORS.

Wants All the Light Turned On Prison Commission.

Atlanta, Aug. 7.—General Clement A. Evans, a member of the prison commission, says that he wishes no favors shown him on account of his age, his connection with the ministry, or his services to the confederacy. He says he wishes all the light turned on and a full investigation of every act of the commission which has been called in question. He was in the committee room Wednesday, but was not called to the stand. In a statement to the press, he said:

"I am the only resident commissioner."

"A number of my friends live in Atlanta, and my neighbors know of the charges against the commission, and know that they involve me. I am anxious to be cleared."

"I am seventy-five years old, and am perfectly responsible for my actions. I want no exemption on account of my age."

"And I want no exemption for any other reason, sentimental or otherwise. I want these gentlemen to investigate not only my official character, but my private character, my personal life. I do not want my connection with the ministry to receive any consideration. I do not want the fact that I am a confederate veteran or commander of the United Confederate Veterans to have any weight. I want to be investigated without any favor whatever, and I will so state before the committee."

LOSS TO WHOLE COUNTRY.

President Roosevelt Pays Tribute to Late Senator Allison.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 7.—President Roosevelt has paid a tribute to the late William B. Allison, United States senator from Iowa, the news of whose death greatly shocked the president.

He sent a telegram to the late senator's secretary as follows:

"McNelly: Am inexpressibly shocked and concerned at the news. The whole country loses a man grown gray in the most honorable type of public service, a man who because of his experience and trained ability was one of the most efficient aids in achieving good government that we had in our country. Theodore Roosevelt."

Pope Receives Pilgrims.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The pope Thursday received the American pilgrims who left New York last month under the direction of the Rt. Reverend James H. McGann, and J. J. McGrane, of Brooklyn. Mr. McGrane presented the pope with a building in New York valued at $50,000 which is to be given to the Italian Silesian Fathers for the establishment of a college. The pilgrims, numbering over 200, were presented by Archbishop Farley. The pope made a brief address in which he thanked the pilgrims and imparted the apostolic blessing.

Near-Beer Tax Adopted.

Atlanta, Aug. 7.—The house Wednesday morning adopted the Wise substitute, placing a tax of $200 upon all near-beer places, and $500 upon manufacturers and distributing agents. The vote was 152 to 34. The bill as adopted makes no provision about the percentage of alcohol to be allowed in near beers before they shall be regarded as violations of the prohibition law, this feature having been stricken in the substitute offered by Mr. Wise himself.

First Sale in Macon.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 7.—Heard Bros. received the first bale of new cotton for the Central City Wednesday from a customer in Crisp county. The cotton was a fair quality, and was sold to Brown Winberly for Neely & Co. at 12 1/2 cents. Within the next three weeks cotton dealers in Macon will be receiving the new staple and the business of the fall will be started.

Town Wrecked by Cloudburst.

Habeo, Ariz., Aug. 7.—The postoffice and all the business houses and offices on one side of Main street within a distance of 100 yards were wrecked late Tuesday night by a cloudburst which swept down from the mountainside a mass of mud and rock. The damage is estimated at $100,000 or more.

FIGHTING AT TABRIZ

Casualties Are Said to Number Eight Hundred.

HOMES AND SHOPS LOOTED

American Missionaries Have So Far Escaped Injury, Although They Have Had Narrow Escapes—Trouble Outgrowth of Feud.

Teheran, Aug. 7.—A battery of quick-firing guns has been sent from here to Tabriz. The shah is augmenting the military forces in Teheran by the formation of new units of troops.

Tabriz, Aug. 7.—There has now been thirty-five days' fighting in the streets of Tabriz and the casualties, due chiefly to bombs thrown from mortars and shrapnel, are estimated at eight hundred.

Many of the finer residences of the city and hundreds of shops in the bazaar district have been looted, the loss in this direction being placed at more than $1,000,000.

The American missionaries in the city have been exposed to stray bullets, but, although they have had some narrow escapes, none of them have been injured.

During one of the heavier bombardments, a piece of a shrapnel shell fell inside the mission garden within a few feet of one of the mission servants.

There is a bitter feud going on between the constitutional progressives, who hold eleven wards of the city, and the reactionaries, who hold one large ward.

The mass of people, however, have informed the central government that they are not opposed to the shah.

Those who are zealous for the continuation of the old regime regard the constitutional progressives as revolutionaries.

The local assembly, or anjuman, did on one occasion express seditionary views, but later acknowledged the supremacy of the shah and adjourned definitely in token of submission.

CABLE DISPATCHES HELD UP.

It is Said They Were from American Consul in Honduras.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 7.—A report that cable dispatches of American Consul Cress Luard, at Cobá, Honduras, were recently held up during transmission through Honduras, was brought here by passengers on the steamer Herald, from Central America ports.

This report said that the delayed dispatches referred to the revocation of all consular exequaturs by Honduras and were addressed to the state department at Washington. It was not known whether disarrangement of telegraph service by the Honduran insurrection had anything to do with the delay. The Herald's passengers said that the insurrection has been effectively put down.

Court-martial Convicts Two.

Atlanta, Aug. 7.—Under the findings of the court-martial in the cases of Privates Charles A. Ransome and George L. Morris, of company B, Fifth Infantry regiment, as approved by Governor Smith, Ransome will have to serve a jail sentence, while Morris was given the alternative of going to jail or paying a fine. The negro had knocked McCord down and was standing over him with a knife drawn, having already cut him in several places, when the officer tried to draw his gun.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Double-Barreled Sessions of the House Begun.

Atlanta, Aug. 7.—Double-barreled sessions of the house were begun on Wednesday when sessions were held from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 3 p. m. to 5:30 p. m., in a futile effort to catch up on pending legislation; but as a net result of the day's doings only one general bill was passed, five local bills approved and the remainder of the two sessions taken up with debate, long and fruitless.

Chairman Joseph S. Turner, of the prison commission of Georgia, Wednesday took the stand and made answer on behalf of the commission to the attacks made during the investigation.

His evidence was given in a calm, clear tone, and throughout the rendition of his statement and the grueling cross-examination he was calm, serene and entirely self-contained.

Have Violated No Laws.

Judge Turner insists that the commission has violated no law and ignored no act of the legislature. He holds that in every official act of that body, the commissioners were entirely within their official rights. He attacked the testimony of ex-convict witnesses, whom he said had been convicted of murders, thefts, burglaries and other felonies and misdemeanors.

He called in question the evidence of former employees of the prison commission who had testified, and sought to impeach their testimony on the ground that they were disgruntled and disaffected by reason of their discharge.

Every member of the prison commission was in the court room when the investigation committee began its work.

Extra Session Sure.

That there will be an extra session of the general assembly for the purpose of considering the convict question and taking final action on it was made practically certain by the action of the senate Wednesday following a message from Governor Smith.

In the message Governor Smith stated his belief that it would be impossible to give sufficient consideration to the convict question during the remaining days of the regular session without preventing action on other very important matters.

He declared his willingness to call an extra session immediately after the close of the present session for the purpose of taking action on the convict question.

The passage of the bills covering four questions was especially urged by the governor. The matters referred to were the anti-lobbying bill, the registration bill and the bill appropriating money to the state agricultural college and the eleven district agricultural schools of the state.

RACE CLASH AT PENSACOLA.

One Man Fatally Wounded and Another Painfully Shot.

William Johnson, negro, was shot in the mouth and abdomen, while Chief Inspector McClung, of the street railway, suffered a painful wound in the hand.

The negroes had had a picnic at Palmetto Beach, which lasted far into the night. A special car with half a dozen trailers was bringing them back when one negro refused to pay his fare. It is said a general fight followed between the eight or ten conductors and some of the negroes.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Aug. 7.—At a joint meeting held here of the Fitzgerald Business Men's League and the farmers of Ben Hill county, resolutions were adopted condemning in strong terms the convict lease system and calling for its immediate abolishment. the Ocala grounds. The score at the end of the ninth inning was 3 to 3, and called on account of darkness.

The Ocala team was an imported team, being picked from all over the state, and it was said that five of them were members of the Lakeland team who had been hired to play against the Oak Halls. But this made no difference with us, for we showed them we could set a pace that will be any team in Florida hustler to keep up with.

Sheats' curves were breaking nicely and he had good control, the result being that the Brick City chaps could not hit him for only three scattered hits. Ferrell, who started in to do the pitching for Ocala did not last very long, for the Oaks found him for six inches in the same number of innings.
Graham, Sheats and Denton put up the game, taking care of everything the same their way; while Harris and Jewett were the candy kids for the Oaks boys.

Ocala has too good a team to be beating in the sand spur league, and they think they can keep pace with the Oak Halls, we would like to see them in the hammock league along with Palatka.

Following is the game by innings:

First Inning.

Graham out on fly to third; Sheats third to first; Canova went out, and to first. Hits 0, runs 0.

Taylor struck out; Jewett went out on easy one to Sheats; Donaldson to left for one base, stole second on Hadley's hit to right;
Jewett caught at second. Hits 2, runs 1.

Second Inning.

McLeod went safe to first on ground-

FANITORIALS.

How's your head?

Sheats had 'em puzzled.

Denton's two-bagger in the fourth was a beaut. It was the longest hit in the game.

J. Gerig gave us the short end of several decisions. We couldn't beat ten men.

Just think, Ocala had a gang of professionals, and Sheats showed 'em all up. He's the goods when it comes to pitching.

Sandy was the eat-'em-up kid in the ninth. He nailed them all at first.

Denton was the only busy outfielder, and he fielded his position in grand style.

Only four balls were knocked to the outfield by Ocala. Denton fielding three of them.

Harris made a sensational catch of Watson's foul in the second inning. It was a clever bit of fielding.

"That man Graham shure plays a good game,"—Spectator.

Mitchell and Watson were the main geeks on the bases. They both stole two.

Miller caught a pretty game for us, and he will be a valuable man on the team.

Mitchell scored two of the three tallies.
Canova took everything that came his way.

McLeod played his usual good game and he hit the ball, too.

They got wise to Mitchell's ability to steal sacks and refused to let him run for Sandy.

Bullock covered first for us in great style. He's our friend.

Ocala fans were betting all kinds of money that Sheats would not last nine innings. He not only pitched the full game, but made monkeys out of the Brick City chaps.

Elaborate Preparations at Auckland for American War Fleet.

Auckland, Aug. 7.—The excitement in Auckland grows feverish as the date for the arrival of the American battleship fleet draws near.

An immense army of workmen are engaged in completing the decorations and the illuminations, and the water front and the town present a magnificent spectacle. The main streets are being transformed into fairy bowers of palms and bunting, among which are transparencies bearing portraits of President Roosevelt, King Edward, Admiral Sperry and others. Everywhere are the intertwined flags of the United States and England, and everywhere Americans and Britishers are fraternizing.

The fleet is expected to arrive Sunday morning.

BIG TREES.

The Cloud Piercing Sequoias of Northern California.

The sequoia in Humboldt is the tallest tree in the whole United States. But the tourist from the east or west knows it not. What would he say to the information that in the northwest of California grows a mighty continuous forest of these great trees and that it takes days to travel merely from end to end of that forest, which is longer than the distance from Boston to New York or from Chicago to St. Louis. Yet such is the case.

On the ridges and flats of Humboldt is the forest, and in that forest the trees grow to twenty-six feet in diameter and tower 400 feet toward the sky. Do you know what those figures mean? Measure the room in which you are now sitting. If it is a very large room, the longest dimensions would just about contain one of these great trunks. Look out of your window and see the people more than a city block away. That is the distance from which one sees the topmost bough of these stupendous giants.

The redwood of California is the great tree of the Pacific coast. Two thousand acres of it exist in Oregon along the Chetco river. South of the Chetco a continuous redwood belt begins and increases in width from ten miles at Del Norte county to eighteen or twenty miles and keeps on unbroken to southern Humboldt county. Here is a gap, but in Mendocino the belt becomes dense again and widens out to thirty-five miles. South of that county the tree grows in isolated patches.—Humboldt Standard.

THE MIGHTY LION.

It is Easy Enough to Scare Him if You Know Just How.

If a lion or a tiger suddenly appears before you, just hold a chair out in front of him, and he won't do a thing. Allen Williams, who, in the course of his experience with wild animals has been in that predicament often enough to know, says: "These creatures have a much more limited intelligence than is generally supposed. They can take in only one thing at a time, and the four legs of a chair would keep any lion busy thinking for a long time."

"That is the reason why animal trainers carry two whips when they are in the circus ring. One for cracking and awing the performers, the other for emergencies. If one of the lions tries to attack him the trainer simply holds the reserve whip in front of him. The two objects together are too much for the lion's intelligence, and he is immediately subdued."

Another proof of the limited intelligence of the cat tribe, say trainers, is the fact that their performances must always come in the same order of succession. If by some accident the order is broken, the animals are completely lost, and the trainers are few who can keep them in submission once they become confused. In fact, most trainers consider themselves lucky in a case of this sort if they can get the lions quietly back into their cages.

The whole cat family, moreover, is as treacherous as it is stupid.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Amount of Rainfall Over the Earth.

The discussion of observations on rainfall made first by Sir John Murray and later by Bruckner and Fritzsche permits an estimation to be made of the mean rainfall on continents, which is found to be about thirty inches per year. The rainfall on the ocean is more difficult to measure, but it has been estimated by Supan, and Fritzsche, taking account of all the known facts, estimates the mean annual rainfall for the entire surface of the earth at about thirty-six inches. Making use of this number, it is easy to calculate that the total rainfall amounts to 494 million millions of metric tons per year, 1,272 thousand millions of tons per day, 53,000 millions of tons per hour, 883,000,000 tons per minute or 15,000,000 tons per second.—Scientific American.

Simple Method of Cooking Cabbage.

The simplest and quickest methods of cooking cabbage are the best. Cabbage must be trimmed and well washed in cold, salted water, then cut into quarters and tied together again with a string before going into the saucepan, because the heart is more tender than the outside and uniform softness is desired. Have plenty of boiling water with a heaping tablespoonful of salt to the half gallon of water. Let it be boiling when the cabbage is put in and cook it with the lid off, and if it be fresh it will keep a good color. The time depends more upon the age than the size—from twenty to forty minutes.—Delicatour.

A Weakling

Is the only way to describe the poor child that is afflicted with worms. No matter how much or how often it eats, the worms get all the nourishment from the food, the child gets practically none. White's Cream Vermifuge gets rid of the worms quickly, easily and with no bad after-effects. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, rapid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. E. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Lawrence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. These are tiny and sugar-coated.

Hoyle.

Hoyle was not really the inventor of whist, although often so stated to be, but he was the first who introduced scientific whist to the public. A recent authority says that very little is known of Hoyle's personal history except that he was a barrister by profession and held the post of registrar of the prerogative in Ireland. He was born in 1670 and died in Cavendish square in 1767 at the advanced age of ninety-seven years. He received the sum of £1,000 from his publisher for his treatise on whist, which ran through five editions in one year and was extensively pirated. Hoyle is said to have given lessons in whist at a guinea a lesson. One of his great points was the calculation of probabilities at various stages of the rubber. This at first was deemed so important in guiding players that a famous mathematician used to frequent the coffee houses (the old substitute for the modern clubs) and give his opinion on the state of the odds at any stage in a game of whist in return for a small fee from the players.—Glasgow Times.

Crossing the Ocean.

The following bits of conversation may be heard several thousand times each day:

"I think those people down in the steerage have a much better time than we do. But don't they look just like so many animals?"

"Don't those clouds over there look just like land?"

"Somebody said we aren't far from an iceberg, but I don't know whether it's so or not. You hear so many false reports on shipboard."

"Have you met the captain yet? I hope you didn't ask him any foolish questions, poor man!"

"No; I haven't seen a whale yet, but there were lots of porpoises around the ship today."

"Who is that man? I haven't seen him before. He must have come on board during the night." (Always funny.)

"Did the postman bring you any thing this morning?" (Sure of a howl.)

"Is this your first trip to Europe? My, but you have a treat in store!"—Princeton Tiger.

What a New Jersey Editor Says.

M. T. Lynch, editor of The Phillipsburg (N. J.) Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." J. W. McCollum & Co.

An Omission.

Magistrate—What is the charge against you this time? Boggs—They cotched me a-stealing oranges, yer worship. Magistrate—Didn't I tell you when you were here before not to steal anything more? Boggs—No, yer worship; you said not to steal any more lemons, but yer didn't say a word about oranges.—London Graphic.

ODD USES FOR FISH.

One Makes a Good Barometer, Another a Weathercock.

Fishes have been put to many queer uses while still alive, but probably the strangest was that suggested to the war department by an inventor. The propulsion of submarine torpedoes was the subject under discussion, and he proposed that a shark be imprisoned in a tube at the rear end of the projectile, its movements to be controlled by the active application of electricity. In case the shark attempted to swim away it was to be given an electric shock and in this way kept on its course until the torpedo had reached its target.

Another remarkable use to which a fish has been put is as a barometer. The leach is very susceptible to atmospheric changes, and when retained in an aquarium is likely to throw itself out at the approach of or during any remarkable change of wind or weather, or if in a pond or stream will sometimes jump on the bank. It has been kept alive in aquaria as a living barometer from the supposition that certain movements indicate particular changes that are about to occur in the weather. In Russia the dead body of Cottus gobio, the miller's thumb, is used as a weathercock. Hung by a single thread, it will point to the direction whence the wind blows.—Minneapolis Journal.

MULES OF MEXICO.

They Are Even More Knowing Than Our Own Meek Brand.

"Everybody knows that all mules are brainy, but the mules of old Mexico have something on other mules for a sort of prescience of their own," said a man who has spent many years in the neighboring republic. "A Mexican mule will do just so much work and not a blamed bit more."

"The riding mule, for instance, is fully aware of the distance, down to a rod, he is supposed and required to traverse in the progress of one traveling day, and all the sharp sticks or goads or dynamite on earth won't get him to do a bit more than what he knows to be the correct distance. The Mexicans have got a peculiar saying in connection with this characteristic of the Mexican mule. You ask a Mexican, for instance, how far it is by mule back to such and such a point.

"Two days' journey if you are not rushed, but three days if you are in a hurry," the Mexican will reply.

"His meaning is that if you don't ask more of your mule than you should ask of him, the mule will be able to make the trip in two days. But if you attempt to drive the brute he'll soldier on you, and in consequence the journey will take you three days."—Exchange.

The Deceased Wife's Sister.

The law against marrying a deceased wife's sister, which caused so much discussion in England, grew out of the ancient tribal law forbidding a father to sell more than one daughter to the same man when the Briton was emerging from polygamy and when for 21 shillings of the present money a man might dismiss his wife or kill her if she would not go. As civil law it was to protect the living wife and knit tribes closer together by intermarriage. When ecclesiastical law became supreme a misreading of some Scripture text was used to put the sister of a man's wife among the prohibited degrees of relationship. This was the act of 1541 (32 Henry VIII): "A man may not marry his deceased wife's sister or her daughter, but he may marry his first cousin."—London Standard.

A Crab Habit.

Catch a fresh crab, mash the end of one of its claws and watch with what fierce wrath it will tear off the mutilated member. Is it pride that causes him to do this bit of surgical work, or is he afraid of blood poisoning, or is it because the maimed claw might obstruct his speed or entangle him in the submarine botany? The crab is an interesting creature and, like his big cousin, the lobster, is as scrappy as a game bantam, often losing a limb in a scuffle.—Exchange.

His Society.

The west side woman observed an old dandy in violent altercation with the driver of a car.

"What is the matter?" she asked.

"I done tell 'im he can't 'buse dat bawse," said uncle excitedly, "an' he say it none o' my business an' I done tell 'im I's a member ob de human bein' society."—New York Press.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." First Silver Wedding.

First silver wedding dates back to the time of Hugues Capet. The servant of Home Chat, belonging to a man grown gray in his service, and a woman, and what could be a reward? Calling the woman, "Your service is great, greater than mine, whose service is great for the woman always finds harder than a man, and therefore I give you a reward. At your age, know of none better than a dowry husband. The dowry is here from this time forth be to you. If this man, who has with you five and twenty is willing to marry you, then the reward is ready."

"Your majesty," said the old peasant, "it is possible that we should have already silver hairs?"

The king gave the couple silver to keep them in plenty.

It soon became known all over the land and raised such enthusiasm that a fashion after twenty-five of married life to celebrate a silver wedding.

The Treasury Vaults.

First question the average visitor to the United States treasury asks is, "Couldn't burglars get under the vaults and rob the money?" Well, that is not likely. Guard sits beside the vaults. Twenty minutes he is required to get an alarm just to show that he is awake. An armed patrol makes the rounds hourly. Secret service men in plain clothes, with concealed weapons, watch and ward outside and inside the building. As to tunneling, the vaults are built on a solid rock. It is held that if a man by any possible means should manage to bore under a vault the heavy metal would sink to a jelly, thus administering a lasting gold cure. Even if the burglar should get away with the gold, he could not get away with the vault. Ten thousand dollars in gold eagles weighs thirty-eight pounds. Forty million dollars in gold coins of the $10,000 denomination weighs eleven and a half pounds. Burglars prefer the gold certificate to the real thing.—Buffalo Times.

Journalistic Revenues.

Curious boycott of the press in the British parliament had a precedent in the history of the British House of Commons. A writer in the Weekly recalls that the persecuted was no less a celebrity than the late Daniel O'Connell. He noted the inaccuracy of the parliamentary reports, but he forgot to allow for the acoustical difficulties of the House of Commons. He charged the reporters with malicious suppression of his speech and the gallery then refused to admit him at all. Dan stormed and roared in vain, even moving that the speakers be brought to the bar of the House. Finally he apologized. It was well. Lord Lyttleton in the House of Commons in the same manner and the late Lord Montagu had been omitted from London newspaper reports for two years because he something the reporters did not

A Misplaced Pin.

There is an uptown tea room where every is all out of proportion to the amount served you," said a New York woman. "I was dallying with the cream when my spoon struck the frozen stuff. I gave a little pin and a waiter slipped to my side. I said, 'I might have swallowed that.' The glass disappeared. He returned he reminded me of a waiter who was that solemn. The pin has lost a man his job, sir." "Well," I replied, "I am sorry, but it might have cost me my job when you come to think of it." The waiter meekly. Then, seeing, sir, most of the folks that are just sipping their ice cream and chewing it."—New York Times.

Growth of Pity.

One formerly looked on with any even horror at punishments. Now men were broken on the wheel. Men were burned at the stake, were cut up alive. No one had felt any pity for their victims. Men were put into noisome dungeons, with bad air and insect food, they died unnoticed. It is very different now. Hearts are more tender.

She Voted.

What was the topic of debate in our society? asked one member of the society.

"Why—or—let me see—I can't remember what the topic was. But I remember either the positive or negative of the question. I forget which."

What's the Use?

Oh, Wait Till He Returns.

"Why, my dear," exclaimed the good friend on finding Mrs. Newed in floods of tears. "what is the matter?"

The young wife wiped her eyes and tried to compose herself and be inhumanly calm.

"Well," she began, with folded hands, "you know John is away for a week."

"Yes, dear," helped the lady friend. "Well, he writes to me regularly, and in his last letter he tells me he gets my photo out and kisses it every day."

"But that is nothing for you to cry about!" exclaimed the good friend.

"Yes, it is," cried Mrs. Newed, bursting into tears afresh, "because I took my picture out of his bag before he started—just for a joke—and put one of my mother's in its place!"

Why They Don't Desert.

"Instances of desertion from the army in Mexico are very rare and for the best of reasons," said Senor Jose de Minaldez of Nueva Leon.

"The reason lies in the almost sure capture of the fugitive and the certainty that he will get not one but numerous floggings on his bare back. These lashings are done in the presence of the comrades of the deserter, and when the men see how great is the suffering of the miserable wretch who tried in vain to quit his military obligations they are forced to conclude that it is better to stick to the army than to undergo such a terrible ordeal."—Baltimore American.

Audiences Have Changed.

"They don't write comic operas like they used to," said Mr. Stormington Barnes. "They used to have jokes then that made people laugh."

"Yes," answered the manager, "but you must remember that in those days they had audiences who could be made to laugh."—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

DO YOU WANT TO

MAKE OR LOSE MONEY

THIS SUMMER?

THERE is no good reason for any "summer dullness" in the stores of this city. That's a strong statement—but its not nearly so strong as the one to follow.

No store in this city ever suffered from summer dullness that was not directly traceable to its advertising policy—that was not INEVITABLE on account of its advertising policy. This is a strong statement—but not so strong as the one to follow.

You—if you who read this are a merchant in this city—HAVE THE ABSOLUTE POWER TO DECIDE WHETHER, during THIS summer, YOUR STORE SHALL LAG AND LOSE GROUND, through ENCOURAGING THE NON-BUYING HABIT IN THE PEOPLE—or shall keep as busy as in the so-called "busy seasons." You decide the matter one way or the other when you decide on how much or how little you will advertise during these summer months.

To really "gain ground" at a time when some stores are lagging and falling back is not only possible—it is an aspiration—worthy of a man who has the habit of accomplishing his purpose.

ALL PRUDENT BANKERS

Before making loans, or agreeing to give any person or firm a certain line of credit, require a thorough statement of the affairs of the prospective borrower. If this statement is satisfactory, and shows that it is the policy of the borrower to conduct his business prudently and economically, the banker grants the loan.

ALL PRUDENT DEPOSITORS

Should be just as careful to look into the affairs of the Bank in which they deposit their money—satisfy themselves that the Bank is conservatively managed before depositing their money. Depositing in a Bank is practically the same thing as loaning your money to the Bank, and you are entitled to know something of its affairs. See our last statement.
